Marlene is gifted at directing corporate clients in breaking free from negativity and destructive thought patterns to achieve higher personal effectiveness, increased productivity and emotional mastery.

Through her dynamic workshops, engaging keynote speeches, or targeted consulting, Marlene passionately reaches her audiences with a unique, prescribed-yet-personalized process to catalyze immediate and lasting change.

Marlene is no stranger to change both personally and professionally, having navigated her own reinvention and authored the powerful book, Success is a Given: Reading the Signs While Reinventing Your Life. Marlene is also the founder of Attitude Builders, an online staff development membership offered to leaders and managers across the country.

"I had the pleasure of attending one of your seminars and meeting you at the National PAHCOM Conference, Sept 2009, in Phoenix, AZ. I came aware energized and excited to "rethink" my position and accept the fact that most of the drama was caused by me enabling the employee to continue down the drama highway. I am rowing the boat (sometimes one handed as the other is plugging holes); however, I have the vision and the goal in sight."

Where would you be without your drama?

"Marlene has a way of teaching communication and presentation as a way of life. Whether I'm talking to my daughter, boss or the board of directors of a multi-million dollar company, I am utilizing the impressions Marlene has given me."
